Name	Order Pizza
Summary	A customer wants to order a pizza from a pizza restaurant online. The customer goes to the pizza restaurants website. The customer looks at menu. The customer adds item to cart. The customer places order
Version	1.0.0
Preconditions	1. Customer must have access to a computer 2. Customer must access the pizza menu
Triggers	Customer adds items to cart. The customer checks out. The order is placed and sent to the restaurant

Main Success Scenario	Best Case Scenario
	    I. Order pizza
	        a) Look at menu
	            i. Look at discounts
	            ii. Look at drinks
	            iii. Look at pizzas
	        b) Go to submit your order
	            i. Create new account
	                1. Submit order
	            ii. Login to an existing account
	                1. Submit order
	Best Case Scenario Two
	        c) Look at menu
	            i. Look at drinks
	            ii. Look at pizzas
	        d) Go to submit your order
	            i. Create new account
	                1. Submit order
	                2. Check for discounts
	            ii. Login to an existing account
	                1. Submit order
	                2. Check for discounts
	Best Case Scenario Three
	    II. Order Pizza
	        a) Login to existing account
	            i. Access saved orders
	                1. Choose from list
	            ii. Submit order

Post conditions	1. Pizza that is ordered must be submitted to the restaurant to be cooked 2. Pizza must be delivered to the customer
Business Rules	1. Employees identification must be validated when logged into account 2. Credit card must be validated upon order
Notes
Author	Eric Minson
Date	11/15/2016